Dear Bill,

I just wanted to drop you a line to thank you for the fantastic program "Last Call". As this was my first time seeing the program I was truly impressed. I now understand why we had a "packed house". You presented an educational as well as entertaining program on a very serious topic.

The counselors and students who participated are still buzzing about your unique approach to the dangers of alcohol abuse.

I look forward to bringing your program back to the College of Staten Island in the very near future.

Sincerely
