Dear Bill:

Thank you for presenting "Last Call" for the students at Presbyterian College on October 12, 1999.

You will recall that you and Brian Smith performed here a couple of years ago. When I learned that this was a one-person act now, I have to admit being somewhat apprehensive. However, your performance was outstanding and well received by the 800+ students in the audience. Many students, faculty and staff have commented on how effective your act was, from both educational and entertainment perspectives.

We look forward to having you back at Presbyterian College in the future.

Sincerely,
