Dear Mr. Ross,

April 24, 2000

On behalf of the Somers High School students and faculty, I would like to thank you for such a wonderful, riveting performance which you gave to our students earlier this month. It is not often that the message of drugs, alcohol and violence can be portrayed in such a respectful and talented way that even the most "hard to reach" kids will benefit. The feedback I have been receiving from both students and faculty has been overwhelmingly positive. I have already been asked when you can return to our school for a repeat performance.

Thank you so much. Please know that I work with the most at-risk, seriously substance abusing students in our school, and their feedback, as well, was positive. Your presentation has made several students step back and take a serious look at their behaviors and decision-making. It was a pleasure working with you.

Sincerely,
