Dear Bill:

I am pleased to provide this letter of appreciation and reference. Your presentation of "Last Call" yesterday evening for approximately 500 of our cadet-athletes was right on the mark. Not only was the 50 minute performance entertaining, but it was extremely informative and certainly increased our knowledge of substance (alcohol) abuse.

Thanks again for a very positive experience, and good luck in continuing to provide alcohol awareness and education throughout our country.

With best wishes from West Point!

Sincerely,

Rick Greenspan
Director of Intercollegiate Athletics
